

The Horizon 2020 GROWINPRO project
presents the webinar

Envisioning post-pandemic times Economy and society after the COVID-19

Tuesday, February 22nd 2022

h. 4.30 - 6.30pm (CET)

Registrations: <https://bit.ly/GROWINPROwebinar>

Info: growinpro@gmail.com

This GROWINPRO webinar – building on the latest project's research results on COVID-19, and gathering distinguished scholars and high level CSOs practitioners – will debate crucial questions about the pandemic, its socioeconomic and health impact, and the future scenarios ahead: from the conflicts over vaccines' patent rights and Big Pharma's interests to the role of public health systems in the face of the pandemic crisis, from the current trends of rising inequalities to the political recipes that should be implemented to steer a just and sustainable post-COVID recovery.

THE PROGRAM OF THE WEBINAR

4:30 - 5:30pm (CET) | SESSION 1

Setting the scene

GROWINPRO's research on the pandemic. Topics, results, perspectives

Maria Enrica Virgillito • GROWINPRO researcher, Sant'Anna School of Advanced Studies – Pisa

Global health, patent rights, and the geopolitics of the virus

Nicoletta Dentico • Head of the Global Health Programme, Society for International Development

The impact of COVID-19 on gender and inequality

Sarah Kaplan • Director, Institute for Gender and the Economy at the Rotman School of Management – University of Toronto; GROWINPRO advisory board member

Chair: Duccio Zola • GROWINPRO researcher, Lunaria

5:30 - 6:30pm (CET) | SESSION 2

Roundtable. Policies for post-pandemic times

Giovanni Dosi • GROWINPRO Deputy Coordinator, Sant'Anna School of Advanced Studies – Pisa

Massimo Florio • University of Milan and Forum on Inequality and Diversity

Marica Frangakis • Vice-Chair, EuroMemo Group

Giulio Marcon • Spokesman, Sbilanciamoci! Coalition

Chair: Andrea Roventini • GROWINPRO Coordinator, Sant'Anna School of Advanced Studies – Pisa

Questions from the public and final replies

